MEDICAL CONDITION?

These events are being organised by local charities working for families of children with special needs and disabilities including Greenwich Mencap, Greenwich Toy Library, National Autistic Society, Downs Syndrome Association, Dyslexia Association, GAD and ASBAH.

Parent Participation is part of a new government scheme called 'Aiming High for Disabled Children' which plans to help disabled children and their families get the support and chances they need to live ordinary family lives. 'Aiming High' is the start of a new way of working with parents and carers so they can have more of a say in how services can change in Greenwich. This is your opportunity to tell those in charge how you think things could be improved.
